

5 zones of Bangalore

Bangalore is traditionally divided into five main geographical zones: North, South, East, West, and Central.

As of late 2025, this division has been formalized through the creation of the Greater Bengaluru Authority (GBA), which split the previous single civic body (BBMP) into five separate municipal corporations to better manage the city's massive growth.

1. Bengaluru Central

This is the heart of the city, encompassing the historic "Old Bangalore" and the Central Business District (CBD). It is the most densely populated and commercially vibrant zone.

- Key Areas: MG Road, Lavelle Road, Shivajinagar, Chickpet, Majestic, Vasanth Nagar, Shanthi Nagar, and CV Raman Nagar.
- Vibe: High-end shopping, government offices (Vidhana Soudha), and heritage markets.

2. Bengaluru East

Known as the IT powerhouse of India, this zone has seen the most rapid transformation over the last 20 years. It is home to massive tech parks and international schools.

- Key Areas: Whitefield, Marathahalli, Mahadevapura, KR Puram, Hoodi, and Varthur.
- Vibe: Corporate, cosmopolitan, and characterized by high-rise luxury apartments and gated communities.

3. Bengaluru South

Often called the "cultural capital" of the city, the South is known for its lush greenery, wide roads, and traditional Bangalore charm mixed with modern lifestyle hubs.

- Key Areas: Jayanagar, JP Nagar, Banashankari, HSR Layout, Koramangala, BTM Layout, and Bannerghatta Road.
- Vibe: Residential, educational, and famous for its diverse food scene and nightlife (especially in Koramangala and Indiranagar).

4. Bengaluru North

This is the city's fastest-growing corridor, largely due to its proximity to the Kempegowda International Airport. It is the focus of massive future infrastructure projects.

- Key Areas: Hebbal, Yelahanka, Jakkur, Devanahalli, Thanisandra, Sahakara Nagar, and Vidyaranyapura.
- Vibe: Rapidly developing, open spaces, and premium villa projects.

5. Bengaluru West

The West is an industrial and educational hub, retaining a very "local" and established feel. It is known for its strong connectivity via the Metro.

- Key Areas: Rajajinagar, Malleshwaram, Vijayanagar, Basavanagudi, RR Nagar (Rajarajeshwari Nagar), and Yeshwanthpur.
- Vibe: Traditional, home to famous temples (like the Bull Temple), and historic residential layouts.
